iQ CREDIT UNION AWARDS 2011 COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS

VANCOUVER, Wash — iQ Credit Union has announced five recipients of its 2011 scholarship program honoring students pursuing undergraduate degrees. Scholarship winners were selected based on academic achievement, community service, a written essay and letters of recommendation. Each student receives a $1,000 scholarship.

“We’re honored to support the educational ambitions of young adults in our community,” said Roger Michaelis, chief executive officer, iQ Credit Union. “These students have distinguished themselves through service and academic excellence, and deserve recognition and congratulations for their accomplishments.”

iQ Credit Union’s 2011 scholarship recipients include:

Graduating high school seniors entering a four-year college or university:

- Ellie Ficco, a 2011 graduate of Columbia River High School, will enroll at the University of Washington with a major in Biology/Pre-med.
- Joanna Guo, a 2011 graduate of Camas High School, will enroll at the University of Southern California with a major in Pre-med.

College student working towards a baccalaureate degree

- Cole Larson, a graduate of Hockinson High School, is a student at George Fox University majoring in Field Biology and Environmental Studies.

Wilber White Committee’s Choice:

- Shellie Johnson is a graduate of Columbia River High School and will enroll at Clark College with plans to pursue studies as a Field survey Technician.
- Darcie Ek is a graduate of Hockinson High School and will enroll at Clark College with plans to pursue nursing studies.
