iQ CREDIT UNION MEMBERS DONATE OVER 336 LBS OF FOOD TO A LOCAL FOOD BANK

Vancouver, WA —August 26, 2008—iQ Credit Union held its annual Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, March 15th for its Piggy Bank Club members and collected over 336 pounds of food for the Orchards Food Bank.

Each year, the credit union holds this event for members up to age 9. The free event features a visit from the Easter Bunny with plenty of candy, toys and stuffed animals for the credit union's youngest members. Participating children and their families are encouraged to bring canned food to donate to the less fortunate.

2008 was a record year in attendance and food collection, with more than 12 boxes and bags of food, as well as cash donations, were collected for the Orchards Food Bank. Volunteers from the credit union and high school students from the iQ Credit Union campus branches program staffed the event.

iQ Credit Union offers the Piggy Bank Club savings account to all youth in Southwest Washington to encourage children to save with incentives for reaching deposit goals. They also teach the value of charity as with the Easter Egg Hunt, where members are encouraged to bring canned food donations to benefit local food banks.
